

Taking off the passengers from the steamship Rapids Princee, which went on the rocks in the treacherous Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. More than 400 excursionists were removed without loss of life. International.

Mrs. Harold W. Nichols, one of the prominent society performers in the tableaux and dances given at East Hampton, L. I., for the benefit of St. Luke's parish. Underwood & Underwood.

The investiture of the new Bey of Tunis, Sidi El Habib Bey, successor to Sidi En Naceur Bey, who died last month. Photo shows, left to right, Gen. Robillot, commander of the French troops of occupation in Tunis; Lucien Saint, French resident, and the new Bey. Soler.

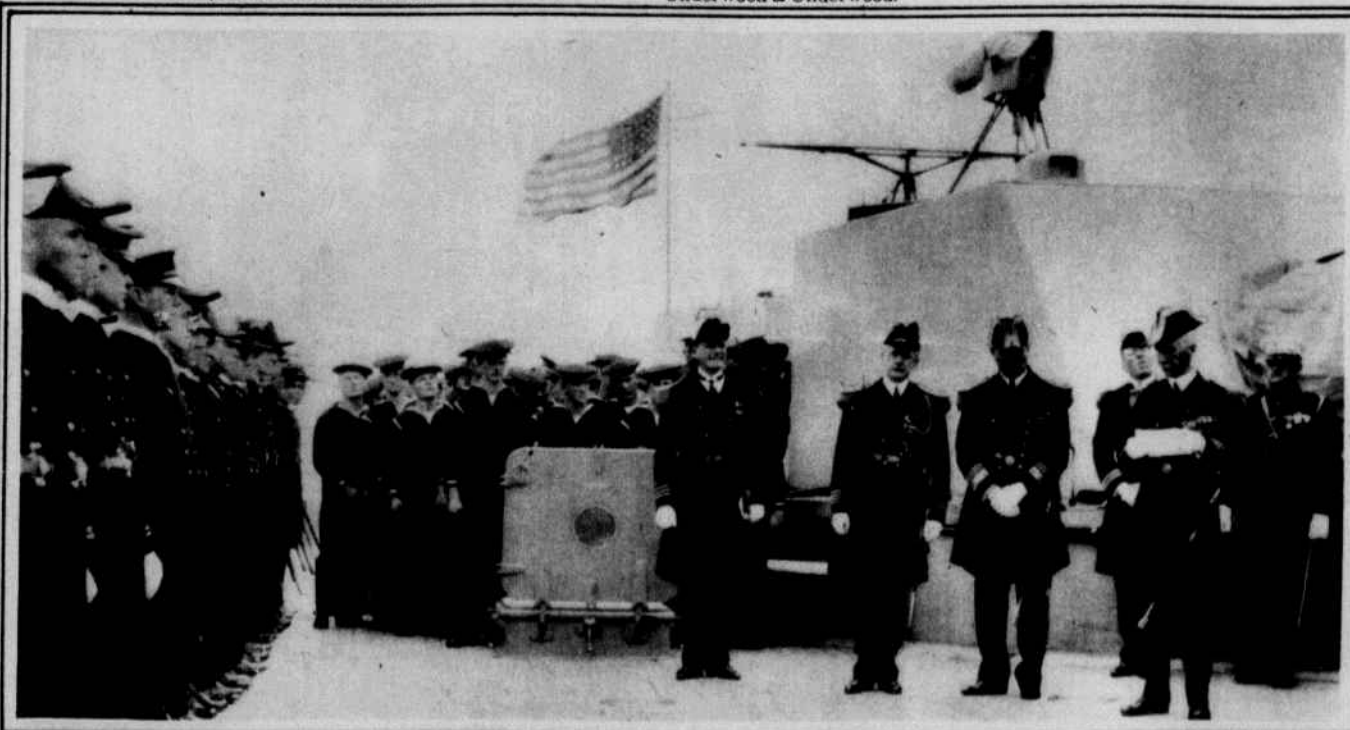

Twenty persons were killed and many injured in an explosion at the German Mine Depot at Cuxhaven. Photo shows the widespread ruins and the shattered shells of some of the mines. Pacific & Atlantic.

Myron T. Herrick, United States Ambassador to France, home on a vacation, calling on Secretary Hughes at the State Department before going to his farm in Michigan for the summer. Underwood & Underwood.

Henry B. Spencer, former Federal purchasing agent for the war time railroad administration, in his new office as Federal Coal Administrator to which he was appointed by President Harding for the duration of the coal strike emergency. Harris & Ewing.

Vice-Admiral E. A. Anderson taking over the command of United States Navy forces in European waters on the U. S. S. Utah. On his right is Vice-Admiral Niblack, former commander, who has been transferred to Charleston Navy Yard. Underwood & Underwood.

R. E. Strawbridge, Jr.; William Averill Harriman, Malcolm Stevenson and Morgan Belmont fighting for the ball in the final polo match for the Westbury challenge cups between the Shelburne House and Orange County Quartets on the International Field at Westbury, L. I. Pictorial Press.